9 Merchants' Exchange Block, Merchants' Row
RUTLAND, VT.

It is no doubt a source of gratification to the residents of Rutland, in looking through this Directory, to note the many new industries that have recently sprung up in our town, and especially the knowledge of the fact that all of our industries, both old and new, are in such a healthy and prosperous condition. We, the residents of Rutland, are proud of the fact that in point of Wealth, Population and Business interests, our town stands second to no other in the State. BARDY & BABBITT, having seen that such a large addition to our population would result in a much larger demand for all kinds of merchandise, secured the large and commodious store at 35 MERCHANTS' Row, and opened up the largest line of CLOTHING, HATS, CAPS, FURNISHING GOODS, TRUNKS AND BAGS, ever shown in Vermont. There has been accorded us from the first a large and prosperous trade, which by square and honorable dealing, strict attention to the wants of our patrons, by the offering of only good and reliably made goods, has steadily increased. It has been our aim from the start to make our store the headquarters for all goods in our line, by offering the largest and best variety of styles and qualities at the lowest possible price. We shall continue to offer all the latest styles, in MEN'S, YOUTHS', BOYS' and CHILDREN'S CLOTHING. All the latest NOVELTIES in HATS, CAPS and GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS. Also a large and complete stock of TRUNKS and BAGS. We extend to all a cordial invitation to call and examine our goods and prices, assuring to every one only kind and courteous treatment. Everything warranted as represented, by

THE HERALD AND GLOBE,

Rutland, Vermont.

89th Year. The Oldest, Largest and Best Vermont Newspaper.

THE DAILY HERALD AND GLOBE.

Is published every morning (Sundays excepted) and contains full Associated Press telegraphic reports up to the time of going to press, with complete local and editorial departments, and aims to be a finished newspaper in all respects, giving a careful epitome of the world's doings each day. It is a paper suited to the wants of a merchant, manufacturer, and all business men; is printed in season for the early morning trains out of Rutland, and can be laid on the breakfast table of subscribers near the line of a railroad at any point within a radius of 40 miles of Rutland.

THE WEEKLY HERALD AND GLOBE,

a large quarto sheet of 64 columns, is published every Thursday morning, and is the largest weekly in Vermont. It is made up of selected matter from the daily, contains a full summary of the home and foreign news of the week, stock and dairy market reports, and has a complete agricultural department. It is a paper exactly suited to the wants of the farmer and all residents of the smaller towns away from the line of railway communication, being especially designed for the households of the rural population, and a necessity to all persons of that class in Southwestern Vermont.

The high character which the HERALD AND GLOBE has always held as a political, news and family journal, during the eighty-eight years of its existence will be fully and ably maintained during the coming year. The two functions of a newspaper—a vehicle of news and an organ of public opinion—will be constantly kept by the HERALD AND GLOBE at the highest standard. It will continue to be the most enterprising Vermont journal, furnishing its readers all legitimate news promptly, and giving more reading matter than any other paper in the State. It will comment on all occurrences that seem to demand notice with its usual ability, fairness and candor. In short the HERALD AND GLOBE will continue to be the largest, strongest, most influential, best, and (considering size and quality) cheapest newspaper in Vermont, keeping abreast of the times in all the departments of a complete family journal.

FACTS FOR ADVERTISERS.

Advertisers will advance their own interests by a thoughtful perusal of the following facts: The HERALD AND GLOBE presents unequaled attractions as an advertising medium to merchants, manufacturers and all business men who wish to get the fullest returns for their money. No paper in Vermont approaches it in value as a medium through which to reach the best class of consumers, and its prices, based on circulation, are greatly below the rates of any other paper in the State.

The actual circulation of the DAILY HERALD AND GLOBE, almost equals the combined circulation of all the other Vermont dailies, while its advertising rates are about one-third as much. The Daily Herald and Globe gives much greater value for the money than any other Vermont daily.

The WEEKLY HERALD AND GLOBE has a larger circulation than any other Vermont weekly with one exception, and it is the very best advertising medium in the State for these reasons: Its large circulation; its intelligent readers; its ability; the fact that it has constantly visited the families of nearly all its readers for more than half a century gives an influence to all that appears in its columns possessed by no paper of fugitive growth or feeble existence. The Weekly Herald and Globe gives much greater value for the money than any other Vermont weekly.

The skilful advertiser—the man who understands his business; the man who puts his money where it will “do the most good”—never fails to take into consideration the character of a paper and the class of persons who read it, for he knows that the average of purchases made by the settled, responsible classes—those who are able to buy the paper they read and pay for it in advance—is out of all proportion greater than the average of purchases made by the transient, wholly irresponsible class reached by a certain kind of ephemeral, irresponsible publications—alleged newspapers. We invite advertisers to investigate the above facts.

I am now making a specialty of finishing up and ornamenting

TEXAN STEER HORNS

of all sizes, which are being painted by hand in Various Designs. The

HORN OF PLENTY

is the popular emblem, usually employed to represent abundant crops and general prosperity throughout the land, and it might here be suggested that as the "Good Luck" Horse Shoe has had its day in every conceivable manner, from a breast pin to a wreath of flowers, that the next emblem to be adopted will be the cheerful and encouraging Horn of Plenty. Rutland proposes to lead off by giving it a prominent place in the Parlor and Dining Room as a combined work of nature and art. I therefore extend to all a cordial invitation to examine this really unique, beautiful and refined emblem, which can be seen at Tuller's Bookstore. They can be furnished at all prices to suit the purchasers. We have on hand various sizes and styles and will continue to obtain the very best specimens which can be desired and ornamented to suit all tastes.

A note obtained by fraud, or from a person in a state of intoxication, cannot be collected.

If a note be lost or stolen, it does not release the maker; he must pay it.

A note given by a minor is void.

Notes bear interest only when so stated.

Principals are responsible for the acts of their agents.

Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm.

Ignorance of the law excuses no one.

It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.

The law compels no one to do impossibilities.

An agreement without consideration is void.

Signatures made with a lead pencil are good in law.

A receipt for money paid is not legally conclusive.

The acts of one partner binds all the others.

Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced.

An endorsee has a right of action against all those whose names were on the bill when he received it.

An indorsement may be written on the face or back.

An indorser may prevent his own liability being used by "without recourse," or similar words.

An oral agreement must be proved by evidence. A written agreement proves itself. The law prefers written to oral evidence because of its precision.
